The West Australian
Thursday, August 29, 2019

The humble food court has stood the test of time as a go-to cheap eats destination, and for good reason.

Sure, you still may have to wipe down the table yourself, but the quality and variety of the food, friendly service, sense of nostalgia and comfy perch to chat to mates or just people watch always makes it a memorable experience.

Plus, a heap of the crowd favourites have been recently renovated, or shiny new spots have popped up.

Here are six of our favourites:

1 CAMBRIDGE FORUM INTERNATIONAL FOOD COURT
Wembley

2 WHITFORD CITY
Hillarys

3 YAGAN SQUARE
Perth

4 FREMANTLE MARKETS
Fremantle

5 OLD SHANGHAI
Northbridge

6 BROOKFIELD PLACE
Perth

Mark this one in your diary now, because the Burmese Food Fete in Highgate only rolls around every second Saturday of the month. Pay at the door and grab your tokens to swap for some of the most flavoursome, authentic Burmese dishes you'll slurp or devour in Perth, starting at just $4.
